Other comments on the Evaluation

The evaluation will be continuous. 80% attendance is required. Arriving late will be considered non-attendance. Any activities requested inside or outside the classroom, with or without previous notice, must be delivered on time to be evaluated. The students who fail in January/February may take an exam in July (results will be 100% of the grade).

Any student unable to meet the attendance requirement of 80% evaluation must communicate it to the professor in the first two weeks of class. These students may take an exam at the end of the period of classes whose result will add up to 100% of the qualification. In the event of failing the subject, they may retake an exam in July.

N.B.: In case of plagiarism, the student will fail.

Other comments

A complete bibliography as well as the necessary material for the course, will be uploaded in the e-teaching platform Moovi.

NB: In order to foster the participation in complementary activities such as company visits, talks, round tables, lectures, seminars, etc, the final grade could increase up to 0.5 points. The professor will indicate which are the recommended activities and the student will show documentary proof of attendance. This will only be applicable for students who have passed the subject.

Contingency plan

Description

In the event of confinement:

* the minimum percentage of attendance required for continuous assessment will not be applicable.

* the classroom session will be substituted by virtual teaching through the resources of the University of Vigo: moovi and remote campus.

* The personal attention to students will be rescheduled with email and remote campus.

*Evaluation will also be remote. Changes in the weight of an assignment or test may occur by adding extra activities. Any modification will be duly communicated to the affected students.
