Other comments on the Evaluation

C.E. If you do not waive the continuous evaluation:

The concreteness of the activities to be carried out will largely depend on the number of students and the means to work on group Two exclusionary paths are indicated depending on whether the student participates in the ApS program or not (general student).

===General students===

The final mark will be the result of:

a) Carrying out several individual and/or group exercises/practical cases while attending the practical sessions. This grade weighs 40% in the final qualification whenever it is greater than or equal to 5 points out of 10 for which and condition essential not to have missed more than 3 practical sessions.

b) A partial exam during the semester to assess progress in the subject (20%)

c) An exam when finalising the subject in which it will be measured the theoretical knowledges reached (40%)

It is necessary to reach a minimum of a 4.5 points out of 10 in each part to be able to compensate both marks and pass

===ApS students===

In the continuous evaluation the final mark will be the result of:

a) Realization of a learning folder/dossier and systematic observation by the lecturer. An oral defence may be required for the evaluation. This mark weighs 40% in the final score as long as it is greater than or equal to 5 points out of 10.

b) A partial exam during the semester to assess progress in the subject (20%)

c) An exam when finalising the subject in which it will be measured the theoretical knowledges reached (40%)

It is necessary to reach a minimum of a 4.5 points out of 10 in each part to be able to compensate both marks and pass

EG at the first opportunity

Students who do not follow the continuous evaluation will follow this process. Once the period of one month from the beginning of the semester has passed, the dean's office of the FCETOU will enable the procedure and inform the students of the deadline for those enrolled to formally express their intention to use the global evaluation modality. In this case, the exam will consist of a multiple choice questions and short questions about the theoretical content (60%) and a case study (40%).

Extraordinary call:

The continuous and global evaluation systems exposed above will be used.

Minutes grading process:

Regardless of the evaluation system and the call, if you do not pass any part of the evaluation but if the overall score is higher than 4 (out of 10), the grade in the minutes will be 4.

The grades of all tests, partial or final, practices and activities will only have effects in the academic year in which they are carried out.

Evaluation dates:

The dates and times of the evaluation tests for the different calls are those specified in the evaluation test calendar approved by the Central Board. In case of conflict or disparity between the dates of the exams, those indicated on the FCETOU website will prevail.

Consultation and/or request for tutorials:

The teacher has an offer of face-to-face or virtual tutoring at scheduled times. To make an appointment, you can do it from the online Secretaria Virtual.

Others:

The virtual classroom platform has tools to detect possible anomalous and dishonest behavior, as well as to detect possible plagiarism in written work. In the case of detection of these behaviors, the final grade of the subject will be Suspended (0) and the fact will be communicated to the Dean of the Center so that it adopts the appropriate measures in compliance with article 13.2.d) of the University Student Statute that establishes the duty to refrain "from the use or cooperation in fraudulent procedures in the evaluation tests, in the works that are carried out or in official documents of the university".

Other comments

This educational guide anticipates the lines of performance that have to carry out with the student in the matter and conceives of flexible form. In consequence, can require readjustments along the academic course promoted by the dynamics of the class and of the group of real addressees or by the importance of the situations that could arise. Likewise, it will contribute to the students the information and concrete guidelines that they are necessary in each moment of the formative process.
